2. FURTHER ACTION

If a demand for international preliminary examination is made, this opinion will usually be considered to be a written opinion of the International Preliminary Examining Authority ("IPEA"). However, this does not apply where the applicant chooses an Authority other than this one to be the IPEA and the chosen IPEA has notified the International Bureau under Rule 66.1bis(b) that written opinions of this International Searching Authority will not be so considered.

If this opinion is, as provided above, considered to be a written opinion of the IPEA, the applicant is invited to submit to the IPEA a written reply together, where appropriate, with amendments, before the expiration of three months from the date of mailing of Form PCT/ISA/220 or before the expiration of 22 months from the priority date, whichever expires later.

For further options, see Form PCT/ISA/220.

  - c. time of filing/furnishing:
    - ☐ contained in the international application as filed.
    - ☐ filed together with the international application in computer readable form.
    - ☐ furnished subsequently to this Authority for the purposes of search.
3. ☐ In addition, in the case that more than one version or copy of a sequence listing and/or table relating thereto has been filed or furnished, the required statements that the information in the subsequent or additional copies is identical to that in the application as filed or does not go beyond the application as filed, as appropriate, were furnished.

2. Citations and explanations

see separate sheet

Re Item V

Reasoned statement with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability;
citations and explanations supporting such statement

Novelty: None of the cited documents discloses a process for polyurethane manufacture using polyol mixtures comprising autocatalytic, tertiary amine end capped polyols. Autocatalytic amino polyols of the prior art (e.g. wo03/016372 or wo03/029320) are prepared via alkoxylation of adequate amine or aminoalcohol initiators. The amino functionality in these cases is in chain and not a chain terminal, as in the present case. Therefore, the claimed subject matter is considered novel (Article 33,2 PCT).

Inventive step: WO03/016372 is considered to represent the closest prior art. It relates to the preparation of flexible polyurethane foams wherein the reactivity can be controlled by the addition of autocatalytic polyols containing tertiary amine functionality. These autocatalytic aminopolyols are manufactured via alkoxylation of appropriate initiators. This process provides autocatalytic polyols having in chain tertiary amino functionality and no terminal tertiary amine groups.

Object of the application is to provide an alternative process for polyurethane manufacture which can reduce or eliminate the amount of fugitive amine catalysts and/or organometallic salts used in producing polyurethanes. The provided examples support the effectivity of tertiary amine end capped polyols as autocatalytic polyols which allow to reduce conventional catalysts in polyurethane product manufacture. This can account for inventive step (Article 33,3 PCT).

Industrial applicability: no objection.
